

PRESS RELEASE

Bradburys attends the Salon du Fromage 2018 in Paris

Bradburys the UK's largest independent cheese supplier is to attend the Salon Du Fromage at the end of February.

Established in 1884 by in the town of Buxton, Derbyshire in the heart of the Peak District, Bradburys has gone on to supply British and European cheese into the UK to major supermarkets, foodservice and wholesale customers as well as exporting cheese to 30 countries around the world.

During the Salon du Fromage Bradburys will be showcasing their innovative award winning range of British and Irish cheeses including cheddars, blues, blended cheeses and our Artisan.

Our ability to source the best cheeses around, then cut, pack, slice, blend and wax cheeses, makes us well placed to tailor our products to any market around Europe either in our brand or in retailer own label.

Come and visit us at Stand 7.3C 078

About Bradburys

Bradburys is an innovative cheese supplier with over 130 years in sourcing and packing cheese from specialist and Artisan cheeses from UK and the world. Bradburys supply a host of UK retail, wholesale and Foodservice companies providing bespoke specialist cheese solutions for consumers across 400 different cheeses.

For Further Details on the release contact :-

Chris Chisnall – Marketing Director – Bradburys Ltd.
E-mail : Chris.Chisnall@bradburyscheese.co.uk